

A TORRID, INTRIGUING SIZZLER FROM THE GOLDEN AGE OF CINEMA

THE CAPTURE

SPECIAL EDITION

Injured and on the run from police, Lin Vanner (Lew Ayres) confesses the sordid details of his life to a priest, which includes the death of a man he'd turned over to the police. Vanner also reveals that he fell in love with the dead man's widow (Teresa Wright), only to have his past catch up to him. Haunting and off-beat, The Capture (1950) was directed by one of Hollywood's best, John Sturges (The Great Escape).
