

THE FIRST DANCING MUSICAL
IN 100% TECHNICOLOR!

DANCING PIRATE

A dance teacher from Boston (Charles Collins) is tricked into joining a band of pirates, which leads to him being fitted for a noose in California. He catches a break when the mayor's daughter (Steffi Duna) demands the hanging be postponed until he teaches her to waltz, but his problems are only beginning! Dancing Pirate (1936) received an Academy Award nomination for "Best Dance Direction." Distributed by RKO Radio Pictures, this mix of comedy and rousing dance numbers was described by the Detroit Free Press as "light, gay, and charming." Watch and see why Charles Collins was compared by one critic to "Douglas Fairbanks in his most acrobatic days."
