Mix the Vibe feat. David Morales

“Past-Present-Future”

KCD 235

US STREETDATE – 7.22.03

In the world of house music, David Morales is like an Armani suit: He never goes out of style. The guy’s been making records for almost two decades now – creating countless remixes, original tracks and vocal anthems – and if you heard any one of them in a club this weekend, chances are it wouldn’t sound out of date. You can bet it ripped the dance floor, too! If you’re holding this collection in your hand, it’s also likely that at least one part of your life has been defined, informed or even changed by David Morales’ music. Then again, maybe you bought this set because you’re new to the scene, and you want an education. Well, you’ve come to the right place. Not only does this collection catch Morales in one of his truest elements – behind the decks – it also commemorates the 10th anniversary of King Street Sounds, a label that, together with its sister imprint, NiteGrooves, has continually served some of the purest, finest music New York has to offer. Many of landmarks from King Street’s history are included here, from fierce ruling dubs (Angel Moraes’ remix of Jamico’s “Sometimes”) and full-out vocals (Kimara Lovelace’s “I Luv You More”), to brand-new cuts (Kerri Chandler’s “I Never Knew Her”) and stone-cold classics (7’s eternal “House Music”). Also exclusively included in this set are three legendary songs, “Philadelphia” (Original Demo & D.M. Experience) by Brooklyn Friends, that David produced, “Show Me” (Him & Her Mix & Def Club Mix) by Urban Soul as well as “Glory Glory” (Def Club Mix) Ananda Project feat. Terrance Downs, which he remixed. It’s all woven into a soul-quenching, mind-expanding tale, as only David Morales could tell it. Partially taken from liner notes written by Smith Galtney.
