Optimum Wound Profile

Silver or Lead

Optimum Wound Profile, formed in 1991 in Ipswich, UK, was one of these groups who proved that there is definitely something more to say in aggressive, electronic music. The tendency to terrorize through sound was kept on the band's second release for Roadrunner Records, "Silver Or Lead" (1993), produced by Colin Richardson (who worked with, among others, Napalm Death, Fear Factory, Machine Head, Slipknot). More sophisticated and elaborated than the debut, the album stunned with a handful of intriguing ideas, supported by solid musical skills. This limited edition digipack of 2000 reissue is digitally remastered.
