

IKE & TINA

ON THE ROAD 1971-72
BY NADYA & BOB GRUEN

IN THE EARLY '70s, legendary rock photographer Bob Gruen and his wife Nadya toured with Ike & Tina, filming them performing on the road and behind the scenes. Now for the first time ever this footage is available to the public.

Ike & Tina: On The Road: 1971-72 is a look inside a hardworking band as well as an iconic couple. In addition to simply awesome renditions of Ike & Tina classics, we also get a glimpse of the group at work in the recording studio, Tina and the Ikettes practicing their dance routines, goofing around on airplanes and in airports, and even at home with their kids.

A lot has been written about Ike and Tina's relationship over the years. But for many years, they were able to coexist together in the public eye, and in the process, create some of the most exciting and gripping soul/rock music ever recorded.

"What's Love Got To Do With It? shows why Ike and Tina Turner broke up," says Gruen. "This film shows why they were together for twenty years before that."
