

Muhammad Ali - The Man, The Moves, The Mouth

Les Krantz's documentary on the Champ

Description

Muhammad Ali's brilliant ring moves and colorful rhetoric are the focus of this entertaining documentary, a retrospective of Ali's life. It has highlights of every major fight of his career. You'll witness the Champ's "moves and mouth" as his gums flapped and his fists flew, as it actually happened. Narrated by Bert Sugar, the greatest boxing sportscaster of our time, this one-hour documentary captures Ali's "moves and mouth" and the legend they engendered. Not only is there rare footage of Ali's colorful rhetoric, his "pearls of wisdom," but also highlights of Ali's greatest fights: the "Rumble in the Jungle" with George Foreman and his famous "rope-adope;" the "Thrilla in Manila" with Joe Frazier (as Ali said, "a thrilla and a chilla and a killa when I get the gorilla in Manila;") and the "Fight of the Century" that matched two undefeated heavyweight champions, Ali and Frazier. Dozens of Ali's fight highlights, his entertaining clowning, his bravado, and ring magic will awe every fight fan.
