RACE WAR THE REMAKE

Crack dealer Soda and his crew are being pushed out of their neighborhood by a new type of dealer - one from another world.

But they are not going to just sit back and watch this new threat turn all their neighborhood customers into zombies with their deadly drugs - they are getting mad, arming up, and starting a RACE WAR!

This is Tom Martino's bizarre, action-packed feature film based on his Alamo Drafthouse-winning grindhouse trailer, and unlike any blaxploitation movie you've ever seen.
