Theatrically released in June of 1980, this classic reggae film has been transferred to HD from original 35mm negative and lovingly cleaned & restored.

FILM SYNOPSIS

Rockers is a reggae triumph. By all critical standards Rockers is one of the greatest reggae films ever. Starring Leroy "Horsemouth" Wallace and Richard "Dirty Harry" Hall, it's a Robin Hood style story of oppressed Jamaican musicians getting even with the "mafia types" in the business.

But it's the all-star musical performances, appearances, and soundtrack that sets Rockers apart, featuring acting roles and music by Burning Spear, Bunny Wailer, Third World, Peter Tosh, Jacob Miller, Gregory Isaacs, Kiddus I, Junior Murvin, Inner Circle, the Heptones, & Abyssinians.

Subtitled in French, Spanish, Japanese and Jamaican Patois

PRESS

"Reggae's raw, righteous cinematic masterpiece... this beautiful edition does a crucial film necessary justice." —Peter Relic, Rolling Stone

"Rockers is another Jamaican movie with the sparkle of The Harder They Come... Rockers is in many respects the better of the two... funny off-beat players and a sinuous reggae score." —Janet Maslin, New York Times

"... one of the most enjoyable musical movies of all time, with a point to make and the sound to drive it home..." —Jo-Ann Greene, Goldmine

"Satisfying to eye and ear in unique degrees for those who dote on a genuine movie exotic." —Archer Winsten, New York Post

"If Harder They Come was an introductory course in reggae, then Rockers is the logical step up to the graduate program." —Steve Morse, Boston Globe

"One of the coolest films I've ever seen." —Guy Richie from Blender

"Arguably the greatest reggae movie ever made." —Tyson Schuetze, Relix

"... ranks alongside The Harder They Come as the greatest film of reggae's golden age..." —Nigel Williamson, Uncut

"... radiates energy, but what really makes it great are the performances..." —Tom Bryant, Mojo
