Legends of Quality British Hardcore Punk Live in 2004

This DVD features The Vibrators playing a blistering 23-song set on September 23, 2004 at CBGB.

With a career lasting over twenty-six years, the Vibrators continue to be one of the few British hardcore punk bands from the 70s that is still active today. Their initial releases became cult hits in England, and the band was able to weather frequent lineup changes in order to become one of the most respected and influential punk bands of the 20th century.

23 songs, 2 interviews, 150 minutes of live intensity at the world's most famous club by one of the last first-wave UK punk bands left standing. All your absolute fave Vibrators hits are here (Baby Baby, Whips And Furs, Yeah Yeah) + rarities (He's A Psycho, Petrol and Brand New Cadillac, made popular by The Clash).

This show proves that the Vibrators are still kicking ass and features bonus interviews, MP3s and easter eggs.

Directed by Jerry Heer (Lunachicks, Ramones) Produced by Pat Collier (House Of Love, Soft Boys, Wonderstuff) 5.1 Surround Sound by Alan Douches (Misfits, Alkaline Trio, Buzzcocks)

Automatic Lover, Your Love Is Fading Away, The Kid's A Mess, I Need A Slave, I Knew It Must Be Love, Politically Correct, Troops Of Tomorrow, He's A Psycho, U238, New Brain, Whips & Furs, So Far Down, Baby Baby, Disco In Mosco, Petrol, London Girls, Judy Says; ENCORES: Brand New Cadillac, Amphetamine Blue, Bad Time, Pure Mania, Wrecked On You, Yeah Yeah Yeah
