

Klaus Kinski

Nosferatu in Venice

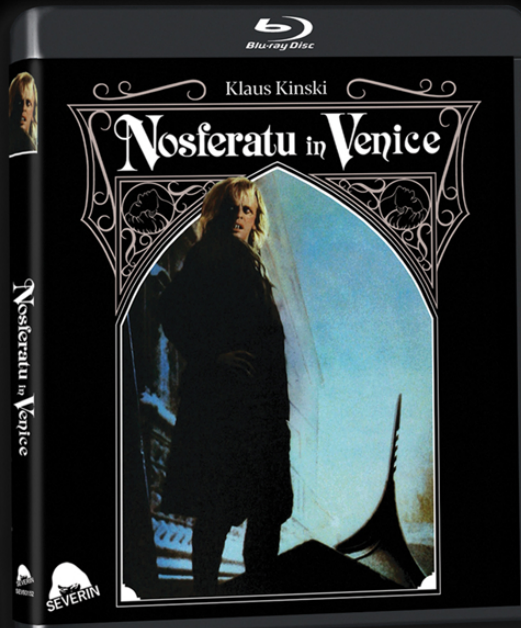

March 2021

“A MEMORABLY STRANGE EXPERIENCE...

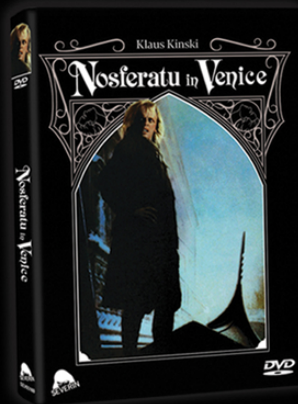

An often bizarre but entertaining treat
from a major golden age in horror cinema.”

Mondo Digital

THE WORLDWIDE BLU-RAY & DVD PREMIERE + ALL-NEW KINSKI DOCUMENTARY

What was intended to be an unofficial sequel to Werner Herzog's NOSFERATU instead became one of the most notoriously fascinating productions in EuroCult history: Klaus Kinski – “now fully in the grip of the ‘batsh*t crazy’ phase of his career” (Rock! Shock! Pop!) – gives his penultimate performance as the legendary vampire resurrected in modern-day Venice with an insatiable hunger for warm blood and rough sex. Donald Pleasence and Academy Award® winner Christopher Plummer co-star in this sumptuously insane shocker that features music by Oscar® winner Vangelis (CHARIOTS OF FIRE), employed five different directors – including Mario Caiano (NIGHTMARE CASTLE), Luigi Cozzi (PAGANINI HORROR), writer/producer Augusto Caminito and reportedly Kinski himself – and still delivers “one eye-popping scene after another” (Cinema Retro), now scanned in 2K from the original negative.

“DARKLY POETIC BEAUTY...
Kinski ravishes his glamorous co-stars with frankly unsettling bestial enthusiasm.”
