Madonna Performance Review

It's been 25 years since Madonna first came to the attention of the world, and since then shes barely been off the chart, out of the papers or even come close to dropping off the public radar. Madonna - The Performance Review is a documentary film which concentrates on this extraordinary womans work as a dancer, a performer and an actress. From her astonishing music videos to her staggering live shows, and a reassessment of her often unfairly criticized film career, this program looks again at how she has entertained us for more than a quarter of a century to an extent few if any have ever come close to matching. Featuring rare and classic performance footage of Madonna.

FEATURES

- Rare and classic performance footage of Madonna, reassessed by a panel of esteemed experts
- Obscure footage and rarely seen photographs
- Exclusive interviews with many who have worked closely and known well Madonna throughout her life and career, including Mark Kamins, producer of her first album, John Plaff, her high-school classmate, studio owner Bob Blank, her biographer Lucy O'Brien, DJ and Journalist Kris Needs and others
- Insight, review, criticism and enlightenment from the New York Daily News' music-critic Jim Farber, music-historian, writer and broadcaster Paul Gambaccinni, singer and performer Kellee Bryan (formally of RnB/Pop band Eternal), Devon Powers from Pop Matters magazine and many more
