

Metal Machine Music: Nine Inch Nails and The Industrial Uprising

The fascinating history of an often overlooked, but vital, contemporary musical form.

DESCRIPTION

This film traces the fascinating history of industrial rock, via its 1970s origins, through its enormous rise to prominence in America in the late 1980s and throughout the 1990s, with NIN as the focal point, to culminate with the current activities of Trent Reznor as he uses marketing and promotional initiatives in a manner just as creative as the music he continues to compose. It features brand new interviews with Genesis P. Orridge, Nine Inch Nails' Chris Vrenna and Richard Patrick, NIN Biographer and Classic Rock journalist, Tommy Udo, Jon Wiederhorn from Revolver magazine, Chemlab's Jared Louche and many others. Also features rare footage and music from Throbbing Gristle, Cabaret Voltaire, Depeche Mode, Ministry, Skinny Puppy and, of course, Nine Inch Nails... Plus archive interviews with Trent Reznor, seldom seen live performances, news clips, photographs from private collections and much more.
