Originally formed in 1974 SON OF A BITCH were led by guitarist GRAHAM OLIVER and bassist STEVE DAWSON before they joined up with another band called COAST and together they changed their name to SAXON (the rest is NWOBHM history)

Fast forward to 1996 and Oliver and Dawson had left Saxon and teamed up with another ex Saxon member Pete Gill and Thunderhead singer Ted Bullet and reformed Son Of A Bitch and recorded in Manchester "Victim You", The bands debut concert was headlining at The Isle Of Mann TT plus further festival appearances in Zurich, Holland, Brazil and Spain. The band though folded when Pete Gill had health issues and Ted Bullet had to quit to fulfil his contractual demands for Thunderhead.

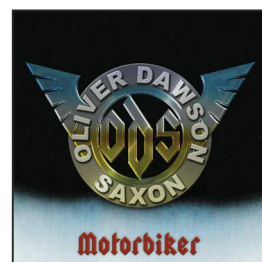

The album has now been remastered and included is a bonus studio track never before released from the original 1996 recording sessions
