MR BIG fronted by DICKEN shot to fame in the UK with their hit single "Romeo" which made number 4 in the 1977 single charts selling over 250,000 copies. The band toured USA (with Tom Petty, Kansas and others). The world was at their fingertips. However the follow up single did not sell and the band were dropped by their label. A follow up album "Seppuku" was produced by Ian Hunter in 1978 and was never released until Angel Air released it in 2001 (SJPCD074)

Mr Big was then rested and the band regrouped as BROKEN HOME and they released two albums "Broken Home" and "Life" both of which were re-released in Angel Air in 2004

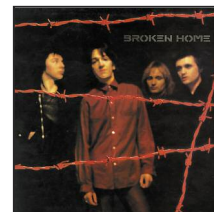

In 2010 Mr Big reformed and recorded a new album "Bitter Streets" with a new version of "Romeo", plus two bonus tracks all of which showcase Dickens talent as a songwriter and performer.
