

TRUE STORIES FROM THE FRONT LINES OF AMERICAN MUSIC

Ten years in the making, this music-filled documentary explores the world of modern-day troubadours like PETER CASE, MARY GAUTHIER, CHRIS SMITHER, DAVE ALVIN and more – gifted musicians who travel 21st century America on highways of song.

"Troubadours didn't just live during the '60s folk scare. A new generation is among us today -- and they're captured eloquently and beautifully in this richly detailed, musically first-rate movie." (Boston Globe)

"The major strength of this film comes from the trust and bond apparent between the filmmaker and the artists captured during interviews and performances." (No Depression)

With electrifying live performances of 40 songs by some of America's finest songwriters. Includes "Ice Water" and "Entella Hotel" by Peter Case, Mary Gauthier's award-winning "Camelot Motel," Slaid Cleaves' #1 Americana hit "Broke Down," Chris Smither's evocative "No Love Today," and more.
